Registrations open for Automechanika Buenos Aires 2026

Buenos Aires, November 2025.- The leading exhibition of the spare parts industry in South America is preparing to showcase the main trends in mobility. From April 8 to 11, 2026, La Rural Trade Center, Buenos Aires, will once again be the meeting point for the entire value chain of the automotive sector.

Automechanika Buenos Aires is back bigger and renewed: more than 600 leading brands from 20 countries have already confirmed their participation, reinforcing its global character. The 2026 edition expands to receive more exhibitors, more visitors and to enhance business opportunities.

With less than five months to go until Automechanika Buenos Aires 2026, it is already anticipated that it will be an event with launches, conferences and the latest technologies and services for mobility. With more than 35,000 m² of surface area and 75% of the spaces already sold, it will bring together entrepreneurs, manufacturers, distributors and professionals from all over the region in a business and networking environment.

Those who wish to participate can now be registered online by entering <https://automechanika.ar.messefrankfurt.com/buenosaires/es.html>. The process is simple and agile: it only requires filling out a short form with personal data. At the end, each visitor will receive confirmation by email and their virtual credential that they must present along with their ID when entering the exhibition.

Throughout its four days, the exhibition will offer a comprehensive look at the automotive and spare parts market. The main national and international companies in the field will exhibit their products, technologies and solutions, accompanied by an academic program that promotes professional updating and technical exchange.

Organized by the Association of Argentine Component Factories (AFAC) and Messe Frankfurt Argentina, the meeting is consolidated as the stage that marks the agenda of the industry throughout the South American region. Automechanika Buenos Aires will take place from April 8 to 11, 2026, at La Rural Trade Center, Buenos Aires.
